Section 3.04. Delegation of Management. To the extent permitted by applicable law and stock exchange rules, the Board herewith delegates, in the sense of article 716b CO, all other duties, including the preparation and implementation of the Board resolutions as well as the supervision of particular aspects of the business and the management of the Company, to the Chief Executive Officer.

Section 3.05. Meetings.

(a) The Board shall meet together for the dispatch of business, convening, adjourning and otherwise regulating its meetings as it thinks fit. The Board shall give due consideration to the governance framework set forth in the Corporate Governance Guidelines of the Company.

(b) Regularly scheduled meetings of the Board may be held at such time and at such place as shall from time to time be determined by the Board. Special meetings of the Board may be called by the Chairperson, the Chief Executive Officer, the President, the Corporate Secretary or a majority of the Board. Any member of the Board may request that the Chairperson (or absent the Chairperson, the following persons, in the following order: the Chief Executive Officer, the President or the Corporate Secretary) convene a meeting as soon as practicable, subject to providing a reason for so requesting a meeting. In addition, the Lead Independent Director shall have the authority to call meetings of the non-management Directors.

(c) No notice need be given of any regular meeting of the Board or of any adjourned meeting of the Board. No notice need be given to any Director who signs a written waiver thereof or who attends the meeting without protesting the lack of notice. Notices need not state the purpose of the meeting. Attendance of a Director at any meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, except when a Director attends and makes it known that he is attending for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business on the grounds that the meeting is not lawfully convened, and such purpose is duly recorded in the minutes of such meeting.

(d) Notice of each special meeting of the Board shall be given to each Director either by first class United States mail, or if notice is sent off from a country other than the United States of America, by a mail service equivalent to first class United States mail, at least three days before the meeting, by "overnight" or other express delivery service at least two days before the meeting, or by telegram, telex, cable, telecopy, facsimile, personal written delivery, e-mail or telephone at least one day before the meeting or on such shorter notice as the person calling such meeting may deem necessary or appropriate and which is reasonable in the circumstances. Any notice given by telephone shall be immediately confirmed by telegram, telex, cable, telecopy, facsimile, or e-mail. Notices are deemed to have been given: by mail, when deposited in the mail with postage prepaid; by

"overnight" or other express delivery service, the day after sending; by telegram, telex, or cable, at the time of sending; by telecopy or facsimile, upon receipt of a transmittal confirmation; and by personal delivery, e-mail or telephone, at the time of delivery. Written notices shall be sent to a Director at the address or e-mail address designated by such Director for that purpose or, if none has been so designated, at such Director's last known residence, business or e-mail address. Notices need not state the purpose of the meeting.

(e) Any one or more Directors or any committee thereof may participate in a meeting of the Board or committee by conference telephone or similar communications equipment by means of which all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other, and participation in a meeting by such means shall constitute presence in person at such meeting.

Section 3.06. Attendance Quorum; Resolutions and Minutes.

(a) Subject to Section 10.02, the attendance quorum necessary for the transaction of the business of the Board shall be a majority of the whole Board. No attendance quorum shall be required for resolutions of the Board which, under mandatory provisions of Swiss law, must be notarized and recorded in a public instrument.

(b) The Board shall pass its resolutions with the majority of the votes cast by the Directors present at a meeting at which the attendance quorum of Section 3.06(a) above is satisfied. The Chairperson shall have no casting vote but shall have the same vote as each other Director.

(c) Resolutions of the Board may be passed without a meeting by way of written consent (including by e-mail or other electronic means). A proposal for a written consent must be communicated to all Board members and is only deemed to have passed (in one or more counterparts) if: (i) an absolute majority of all Board members participating in this written consent approves the proposed resolution; and (ii) no Board member requests a Board meeting with respect to the subject matter of the proposed Board resolution within the time period specified in the proposal, which shall not be less than 24 hours after receipt of the proposal, unless the matter is time-critical or has been previously discussed.

(d) The Board shall cause minutes to be made for the purpose of recording the proceedings at all meetings of the Company and the Directors and of committees of the Board. The minutes shall be signed by the acting chairperson and the secretary and must be approved by the Board.

Section 3.07. Information and Reporting.

Section 3.08. Compensation. Each Director shall be entitled to receive as compensation for such Director's services as a Director or committee member or for attendance at meetings of the Board or committees, or both, such amounts (if any) as shall be fixed from time to time by the Board or the Compensation Committee, subject to shareholder ratification as required by law and the Articles of Association. In determining Directors' compensation, the Board shall give due consideration to applicable regulatory limitations, the governance framework set forth in the Corporate Governance Guidelines of the Company as well as the recommendations of the Compensation Committee. Each Director shall be entitled to reimbursement for reasonable traveling expenses incurred by such Director in attending any such meeting.

ARTICLE 5 LEAD INDEPENDENT DIRECTOR

Section 5.01. Power and Duties. The Lead Independent Director plays a critical role in Board oversight and governance by, among other things:

- (a) presiding at all executive sessions of non-management Directors;
- (b) serving as the principal liaison between the executive Chairperson and non-management Directors;
- (c) acting as alternative communication channel for Directors and all interested parties.
- (d) consulting with the executive Chairperson on agendas for meetings of the Board and other matters pertinent to the Company and the Board;
- (e) any other matters reserved by law, the Articles of Association or these Organizational Regulations to the Lead Independent Director.

Section 5.02. Authority. Should the Lead Independent Director be unable or unavailable to exercise his functions, his functions shall be assumed by another non-management Director appointed by the Board.

ARTICLE 6 BOARD COMMITTEES

Section 6.01. General.

(a) The Board may, by resolution passed by a majority of the whole Board, designate one or more committees, each committee to consist of one or more of the Directors, as designated by the Board (in relation to the Compensation Committee, subject to the election of the Directors so designated by the shareholders). The Board may designate one or more alternate Directors as members of any committee, except for the Compensation Committee, who may replace any absent member at any meeting of the committee. In the absence of a member of a committee, the member or members thereof present at any meeting and not disqualified from voting, whether or not constituting a quorum, may unanimously appoint, except in relation to the Compensation Committee, another member of the Board to act at the meeting in the place of any such absent member. At all meetings of any committee, a majority of its members (or the member, if only one) shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, and the act of a majority of the members present shall be the act of any such committee, unless otherwise specifically provided by law, the Articles of Association or these Organizational Regulations. Subject to provisions of applicable law and the Articles of Association in relation to the Compensation Committee, the Board shall have the power at any time to change the number and members of any such committee, to fill vacancies and to discharge any such committee.

(b) Section 3.05(b) through Section 3.05(d) above with respect to notice of, and participation in, meetings of the Board shall apply also to meetings of committees, unless different provisions shall be prescribed by the Board. Each committee shall serve at the pleasure of the Board. It shall keep minutes of its meetings and report the same to the Board when required and shall observe such procedures as are prescribed by the Board.

(c) Any committee of the Board, to the extent provided by the provisions set forth herein but subject to any limitation imposed by the Swiss Code of Obligations or other applicable law, shall have and may exercise all the powers and authority of the Board in the management of the business and affairs of the Company.

Section 6.02. Individual Committees. The committees of the Board shall be (i) the Audit Committee, (ii) the Compensation Committee and (iii) the Governance, Safety & Environment Committee, and any other committees designated by the Board.

Section 10.02. Conduct of the Board and the Executive Management Team

General:

(a) Subject to the Articles of Association and the Corporate Governance Guidelines, a Director may hold any other office (other than as an outside auditor of the Company) or place of profit under the Company in conjunction with his office of Director for such period and on such terms as to remuneration and otherwise as the Board may determine. A Director may act by himself or for his firm in a professional capacity for the Company (other than as an outside auditor of the Company), and he or his firm shall be entitled to remuneration for professional services as if he were not a Director; provided, however, that (i) he has disclosed his interest in the transaction at the first meeting held to consider the transaction or as soon thereafter as he becomes interested in the transaction, and (ii) that any professional services by a Director or his firm for the account of the Company shall be made at arm's length terms.

(b) Subject to any applicable law or regulation to the contrary, a Director may be or become a director or other officer of or otherwise interested in any company promoted by the Company or in which the Company may be interested as shareholder, member or otherwise, and no such

Director shall be accountable to the Company for any remuneration or other benefits received by him as a director or officer of, or from his interest in, such other company.

Subject to any applicable law or regulation to the contrary, a Director shall not be disqualified from the office of Director or prevented by such office from contracting with the Company, either as vendor, purchaser or otherwise, nor shall any such contract or any contract or transaction entered into by or on behalf of the Company in which any Director shall be in any way interested or be liable to be avoided, nor shall any Director so contracting or being so interested be liable to account to the Company for any profit realized by any such contract or transaction by reason of such Director holding office or of the fiduciary relation thereby established; provided, however, that (i) he has disclosed his interest in the transaction at the first meeting held to consider the transaction or as soon thereafter as he becomes interested in the transaction and (ii) he complies with the duty to abstain as set forth below in Section 10.02(e) below.

Conflicts of Interest:

(c) The Board and Executive Management Team members must arrange their personal and business affairs, including their affairs with regard to a Related Person, so as to avoid, as much as possible, an actual, perceived or potential Conflicting Interest with the interests of the Group.

Disclosure of a Conflict of Interest:

(d) Each Board member must disclose to the Chairperson, and each Executive Management Team member must disclose to the Chief Executive Officer, who shall promptly inform the Chairperson, any Conflicting Interest (as defined below) generally arising or relating to any matter to be discussed at a meeting, as soon as the Board or Executive Management Team member becomes aware of its existence. In addition, such Board or Executive Management Team member, as the case may be, shall use his best efforts to ensure that he does not receive any confidential information with respect to such transaction.

Procedural Measures:

(e) Except in exceptional circumstances where it is in the best interests of the Company, a Board or Executive Management Team member with a Conflicting Interest shall not participate in discussions and decision-making involving the Conflicting Interest, and the existence of the Conflicting Interest shall be recorded in the minutes of the meeting. If a Board or Executive Management Team member is required to abstain from voting in a matter, such member shall not be counted in the quorum of the meeting in question. In the event of doubt, the Chairperson or the Chief Executive Officer shall request the respective corporate body to determine whether a Conflicting Interest or exceptional circumstances exist.

Definitions:

(f) Conflicting Interest shall mean the special interest the Director/Executive Management Team member has with respect to a transaction due to the fact that the Director/Executive Management Team member or a Related Person has a financial or non-financial interest in, or is otherwise closely linked to, the transaction, and such interest is of such significance to the Director/Executive Management Team member or a Related Person that the interest would reasonably be expected to interfere with the Director's judgment if he were called upon to vote on the transaction.

Related Person of a Director or Executive Management Team member means:

(i) the spouse (or a parent or sibling thereof) of the Director/Executive Management Team member, or a child, grandchild, sibling, parent (or spouse of any thereof) of the Director/Executive Management Team member, or an individual having the same home as the Director/Executive Management Team member, or trust or estate of which an individual specified in this Section 10.02(f)(i) is a substantial beneficiary;

(ii) a trust, estate, incompetent or minor of which the Director/Executive Management Team member is a trustee, administrator or guardian; or

(iii) one of the following persons or entities: (1) an entity of which the Director/Executive Management Team member is a director, general partner, agent, major shareholder, representative or employee; (2) a person that controls one or more of the entities specified in subclause (1) or an entity that is controlled by, or is under common control with, one or more of the entities specified in subclause (1); or (3) an individual who is a general partner, principal or employer of the Director/Executive Management Team member.

Section 10.03. Insurance. The Company may procure directors' and officers' liability insurance for the Directors and for officers of the Company. Any costs of insurance shall be charged to the Company or its Subsidiaries.

Section 10.04. Confidentiality. The proceedings and deliberations of the Board and its committees are confidential. Each Director is required to maintain the confidentiality of all information received in connection with his service as a Director (including not disclosing any such information, proceedings and deliberations to any third party (other than the Company's representatives who have a need to know), including such Director's employer in the case of a non-employee Director and any person or entity on whose behalf such Director may have been nominated).

Section 10.05. Publicity. The Board believes that the Chief Executive Officer is responsible for all communications with the public. Accordingly, Directors are to refrain from making any public statements regarding the Company at any time unless specifically requested to do so by the Chief Executive Officer or the Board. All inquiries received by Directors should be directed to the Chief Executive Officer. The Chief Executive Officer has the responsibility for keeping the Chairperson informed of all public announcements regarding the Company and shall consult with the Chairperson as to all non-routine announcements in order to determine if the Directors should be notified prior to its release.

Section 10.06. Certain Arrangements; Compliance. Each Director (A) shall not be a party to (1) any agreement, arrangement or understanding with, and shall not give any commitment or assurance to any person or entity as to how such Director will act or vote on any issue or question (a Voting Commitment) that has not been fully disclosed to the Board prior to such person being nominated as a Director, (2) any Voting Commitment that could limit or interfere with such Director's ability to comply with his fiduciary duties under applicable law or the duties under these Organizational Regulations or the Company's Corporate Governance Guidelines, or (3) any agreement, arrangement or understanding with any person or entity other than the Company with respect to any direct or indirect compensation, reimbursement or indemnification in connection with service or action as a Director that has not been fully disclosed to the Board prior to such person being nominated as a Director, and (B) shall, in such Director's individual capacity and on behalf of any person or entity on whose behalf such Director was nominated to be a Director (if applicable), comply with all applicable corporate governance, conflict of interest, confidentiality, share ownership and trading policies and guidelines (including any insider trading policy) of the Company. The Company may require at any time that a Director or nominee for Director acknowledge his understanding of this Section 10.05 and agreement therewith.
